CHRIS O'DONNELL'S SEXY TV COMEBACK

When Meredith finally met her dog's vet on the April 2 episode of Grey's Anatomy, she - and female viewers everywhere -- swooned. Turns out the hunk is former boy star Chris O'Donnell, 25. My, how he's grown! The episode was the first of eight in which Chris is set to appear after a cooled-down movie career and the failed 2005 sitcom Head Cases.

Smart move? Absolutely, says celebrity-image consultant Samantha von Sperling, "It's a great opportunity for him," she says. "He's being associated with an all-star cast on a really hot show with super-high visibility." We're hooked!
